FASHIONABLE LIFE.—The following is a good hit at fashionable life in our cities.—The correspondence is said to have taken place in Philadelphia:

ARCH ST. 4 P. M.
Dear Alicia: Could you oblige us with your opera-glasses for to-night? Pa won't buy because the opera won't stay but a short time, and we feel so awkward without one.

In haste, Lizzy.

P. S.—You may wear Sue's blue sack if you wish, as Pa didn't take a seat for her.

WALNUT ST. 5 P. M.
Dear Lizzy: You are welcome to the glass, but you will not be able to see with it as it has been out of order for three years. We always take it with us, and pretend to look, which answers just as well. I don't want the sack, as I made one out of scarlet flannel yesterday, which at night looks like the real thing. Affectionately, Alicia.

P. S.—Where does your glove-cleaner live? The fellow who has been doing for us has raised from ten cents to a levy which is an imposition.

SLAVERY.—Sergeant Talfourd puts the following words into the mouth of Huon, an expressive of the feelings of a noble minded slave:

That I were dead! Oh, what is death, compared to slavery! Brutes may bear bondage—they were made for it, when Heaven set man above them but no mark definite and indelible, it put upon one man to mark him from another, that he should live his slave. Oh, heavy curse! to have thought, reason, judgement, feelings, tastes, passions, and conscience, like another man, and not have equal liberty to use them, but call his mood their master! Why was I born with passion to be free—with faculties to use enlargement—with desires that cleave to high achievements; and with sympathies attracting me to objects fair and noble and yet with power over myself as little as any beast of burden? Why should I live? There are of brutes themselves that will not tame, so high in them is nature;—whom the spur and lash, instead of curbing, only chafe into prouder mettle;—that will let you kill them, ere they will suffer you to master them I am a man, and live."

THINK.—Some people never think; tools that they are. Thought is the noblest exercise of the mind. Without thought man is a cipher. No man has an opinion of his own without thought. He merely repeats the words of others. When you hear a person contradicting another and declaring his words false, you may generally set him down as one who never thinks. Such are full of contradictions, and they understand nothing they cannot see through; and they see through nothing, because they have not the patience or the wisdom to think and penetrate.

A HARD HIT.—The Howe street Congregational Society having invited Rev. Mr. Love to become their pastor; he has accepted the call on condition that they first pay up what they owe their old shepherd, Mr. Baldwin! This is what might be called in Cromwellian parlance, "a spiritual kick for heavy-bottomed christians."—New Haven Register.

A very Extensive Supply.
IN offering this stock of goods to the inhabitants of Newport and vicinity, I am aware that the satisfaction of making a good bargain is incomplete—it is not realized when the purchaser does not know that he is receiving for his money the very best return. To give, in this case, full assurance, I will say, that whilst the above goods are too valuable to allow of being purchased at low prices than other goods in market, I will notwithstanding, sell them at such prices as cannot fail to secure a continuance of that custom which I already have so largely and so liberally received. M. H. BEEDE, Newport, 11th month 22, 1847. nov 23th

THE DAILY NEWS.

Newport.

Advertisers will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is more than DOUBLE that of the Daily Herald, and greater than the combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly Herald. As one proof of this fact, the list of Letters remaining in the Post-Office is advertised in the NEWS, as BY LAW REQUIRED.

(Correspondence of the News.)

New York, March 20th 1848.

Mr. Editor:—

We continue to be favored with a little the finest weather that ever was secured. Once upon a time we used to know what winter was; we have some faint recollection of its being a period of cold, unpleasant weather, rendering furs and over-shoes, and coats, articles necessary for comfort. The oldest inhabitant says he can recollect when the ground, during that season, was covered over with what was called snow, and the people used to ride in sleighs. They would wrap themselves in buffalo robes, and string the bells on the horses and away they went. But such things are among the things that were. We have been looking for the equinoctial storm, which the almanac says may be looked for about these days, but that also neglects us.

The Hudson river is open to Albany, and the steamers, all decked out in the latest spring fashions, are taking their places, preparing for a start. Opposition to the old line commenced on the day the river opened, and the fare was put down to one dollar, when the old company were thinking to get three. The navigation is open some three weeks earlier than last year. The day boats commence next week. The early opening of the river has given a start to trade, and the appearance of so many strange faces in New York almost makes a New Yorker fancy himself transported into some other village, but then a glance at the streets, the mud which there is no mistaking, is sufficient evidence to convince him that he is in New York still, for, according to history, no other can boast of such mud.

The grand jury has at last done its duty, in relation to the model artist exhibitions. They have indicted all the establishments that were known to them. At one concern, where some of the company were giving exhibitions of classic groupings, in a perfectly nude state, the police entered and arrested the models and carried them to that classic temple the "Tomb," where lodgings were assigned them for the night. The principal part of the audience present at this establishment, were old men, whose heads were gray, men of respectability, of whom was expected better things. But they had progressed pretty fast during their juvenility, probably, and finding this a progressive age, thought they must keep pace with the times. There were also a number of young bloods present.

On Monday evening, the Italian Opera at Astor Place re-opens. Verdi's grand opera of Ernani is to be performed on the opening night. Truffi and Biscaccianti are the prima donnas. There has been a change in the management, and some slight alterations in the company. The opera has thus far proved a losing concern, resulting not so much from want of patronage as from the extravagance of the managers. The Park closed after attempting a short season. The Star insisted upon having three quarters of the receipts, so they broke up in a row. The Broadway is going ahead in fine style. Anderson has been playing to crowded houses, [as he always has done in New York.] Hamblin is again at the helm of the old Bowery, and is doing a good business. Adios, MANHATTAN.

After the verdict was rendered by the jury, in Dr. Coolidge's case, a strong effort was made by his counsel, to obtain a new trial, but the motion was refused. The Court then passed sentence of death upon him, and ordered him to hard labor in the State Prison, until his execution should take place.

He averred his innocence, and took leave of his friends. By the laws of Maine, he cannot be executed under one year from his sentence; and the probability is that it never will be carried into execution.

The expence of the funeral procession of John Quincy Adams, in Philadelphia, was $1,400.

Just as we commenced working off our paper yesterday morning, our Power press broke down, and we were detained three hours in endeavoring to have it adjusted. Our friend CHAFFES was called in, and he is always just the man in an emergency. We finally had to work off the whole edition on a hand press, and were consequently late with our paper. Some of our patrons may not have been served, owing to this disarrangement of matters, but we shall try to prevent such accidents in future, if possible, although it is impossible to prevent them sometimes. Those who did not receive their papers, can be supplied at the office.

Our readers will doubtless recollect an amusing anecdote which we told a few months ago, the hero of which was our friend the gallant Capt. SCORFIELD, of the New London Star; the amount of it was, a very pretty lady handed the Captain a plate of butter, which he supposed to be ice-cream, and commenced eating the delicate morsel—but he discovered his mistake amid the shouts of the crowded ball-room. We have another little story to tell, and the Captain is again the hero of it; we can vouch for its truth, as we received it from the young lady herself who was a party to it.

On a Steamboat excursion from New London to Hartford, last summer, Captain SCORFIELD and his fair friend were among the passengers. On going to the supper-table, they had to pass through a long, dark passage way, and as they entered it, the young lady was noticed to have a small piece of court-plaster on her lip—but when the happy couple arrived at the other end of the dark passage, it was observed that the court-plaster was on the gallant Captain SCORFIELD's lip, and that there was none on the young lady's. How it was thus transferred, the lady did not tell us, but we readily surmised!

The Union Magazine for April is before us. It is decidedly a rich number, and still continues as it always has been, rather a favorite with us, among all the monthlies. The engravings are "The Lost Glove," an amusing scene between Master and servant, where the latter is taking the former's hat and cloak, when lo, a glove is missing, and the servant is grinning because it is on his master's head. "Memory," a splendid picture, where an old man sits in profound thought, while spirit forms are hovering around him, and he is meditating on the scenes of his past life. This engraving, alone, is worth the price of the Magazine. There are several wood engravings, executed in fine style. The literary articles are by Mrs. Child, Mrs. Sigourney, Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Butler, J. Bayard, Taylor, Simms, Mrs. Kirkland the Editor, and others.

It is said that Mrs. Ellet is preparing a biographical account of the women who were distinguished during the American Revolution for which materials are furnished in great abundance by their descendants. From our knowledge of Mrs. Ellet's talent and industry, we cannot but expect a very interesting work; and we hear that some of the most eminent men in the United States are busily engaged in procuring family records, and other sources of information for the undertaking.

It will certainly be a most valuable and interesting book, as the women of the Revolution contributed not a little to our success in the fearful struggle.

We are indebted to the Hon. Albert C. Green, of the U. S. Senate, for a copy of the President's annual Message and the accompanying Documents.

A LARGE RUN FOR SOME ONE.—There is a girl in Carroll county, Md., who weighs 413 pounds.

BULL'S EXPENSES.—This year, the national expenditures of Great Britain are estimated at $272,930,000.

A wag remarks that the reason why the ladies look so much at the moon is the belief that there is a man in it.

The Caledonia is now in her seventeenth day, and is hourly expected. She will bring most important news from France, and we are prepared for anything; the return of Louis Philippe to the throne, the partial establishment of a Republican form of government, or the scenes of 92 enacted over again.

Dr. Coolidge's trial has been published in pamphlet form, and is for sale at Gory's.

Protection Fire Company, No. 5, the "Money Bearer," held their Regular Quarterly Meeting yesterday afternoon; after the transaction of business, they paraded through our principal streets, with their engine. They were dressed in their new uniform, and made a very fine appearance. They were headed by their Band of music, which discoursed eloquently. The Company went through a variety of movements, which were executed with great precision and alacrity, and they gave most ample evidence, to all who saw them, that in case their services were needed to extinguish the devouring element, they would be one of the most effective arms of our Fire Department. Great pains have been taken with their drill, and the officers may well be proud of the result of their labors. The Company is composed of young, athletic men, who could endure a good deal of fatigue.

In the evening, they passed through our streets again, with torches, which made an excellent appearance; their manœuvres in the streets, at this time, presented a fine appearance, which, together with the dense crowd of people by whom they were surrounded, looked quite like a fire in earnest. The Pyrean lights were very beautiful, constituting quite an attractive feature in the display; nothing of the kind was ever seen in this community before.

We are glad to see this spirit displayed by our young men, in building up the Fire Department; situated as we are, it is a matter of infinite importance to have good discipline and an effective corps, for should a fire once get started, in this tinder-box of a town, it would rush on with rapid strides.

The Boston Daily Times came to us yesterday in an entire new dress, and presented a very neat and beautiful appearance. It is printed on a new and improved steam press and its typographical array is equal to any paper in the country. The Times is a good paper, and always contains the very latest intelligence; the proprietors spare no pains or expense to be in advance of their brethren of the press, and they are generally successful.

LOUIS PHILIPPE'S FAMILY.—Louis Philippe was married to the Princess Amelia, second daughter of the late King of Sicily, in 1839. By this lady, late Queen of the French, he has had eight children, of whom six still survive:

1. Louise, Queen of Belgium, (wife of Leopold,) born 1812.
2. Louis, Duke of Nemours, born 1814 married Victoria Augusta, of Coburg, countess of Prince Albert.
3. Maria Clementina, born 1817 unmarried.
4. Francis, Prince de Joinville, born 1818, Admiral of the French Navy, married Francisca, a sister of the Emperor of Brazil, and of the Queen of Portugal.
5. Henry, Duke d'Angoulême, born 1822; married to Carolina, cousin of the King of the Two Sicilies.
6. Anthony, Duke of Montpensier, born 1821; married to the sister of the Queen of Spain.

The oldest son of Louis Philippe was Ferdinand, Duke of Orleans, born 1810; killed by jumping from his carriage, July 1842. He married, in 1837, Helena, daughter of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg Schwerin—by whom he had two children, viz: Louis Philippe, Count of Paris, born 1838, and now 10 years of age, and Robert Philippe, Duke of Chartres, born 1840.

The Rochester Democrat announces the death, on the 31 instant, at Hopkinton, New Hampshire, of Moses Long, in the 87th year of his age. He served in the Revolutionary war, having enlisted in the 9th Massachusetts regiment, and fought at Fort Stanwix, under Gen. Herkimer at Griskany, under Gen. Gates at Bemis heights, and in the battle of Saratoga, and was one of those who endured the terrible wintering at Valley Forge. He fought also under Washington in the battle of Monmouth.

PREPARING FOR FRENCH EMIGRATION.—The Tribune says "a bill will be immediately introduced in the New York Legislature to authorize any person to hold real estate in the State of New York, who may pay for the same. It is said that large amounts of French capital and many French citizens will avail themselves of this law."

Crawford's beautiful statue of the "Dying Indian Girl" will soon be shipped from Rome for New York.

In former ages, the exhibition of Magic Artists has been a precursor to the downfall of nations. They were originally prohibited in Crete, many years ago; afterwards in Ionia; and in the luxurious groves of Daphne, the shameless and profligate population of Antioch crowded to witness these infamous exhibitions.

RIP VAN WINKLE IN NEW BEDFORD. The New Bedford Mercury, mentions a visit to that city, of an aged man from Nantucket, who had lived on that Island seventy five years, without ever visiting the main land!

It is said that the cigars which Byron smoked, during the time he was writing that magnificent poem, Childe Harold cost more than was realized from the sale of the first edition of the poem.

Mr. Webster passed through in the boat to Fall River, Sunday morning, on his way to Boston, where he has been called on account of the severe illness of a daughter.

Mr. Charles N. Tilley is to be the assistant of Mr. Hazzard, at the Bellevue House this summer; he has had some experience in the business, and will give general satisfaction to the guests.

Practice of the Louisville Journal denies that he was ever challenged to fight a duel by valiant Senator Foote; and adds that rail-road and steamboat travelling in the West is considered much more dangerous to life and limb than standing up to be shot at by the hot-headed little "gentleman from Mississippi."

Measures have been taken by the Historical Society, of this State, to procure a Public Address to be pronounced in commemoration of the life and character of Hon. Henry Wheaton.

"My gracious, capling," said Mrs. Darby, "won't that big gun go off?"—"Madam," said the captain, "it has no place to go to."

Boston, Dec. 10th, 1846. This may certify that I have used Pool's Lotion, (as prepared by Messrs Ames and Olds) for Scalds, Burns, Bruises, &c., and am happy to say that I believe it is all it purports to be.

JOSEPH KENDALL, at H. N. Hooper & Co., Commercial St. I can cheerfully testify to the above as I have known its good effects for two years.

Cold Feet are an evidence that the blood is encumbered with morbid humors, which not only render the circulation sluggish and unequal, but prevent a proper supply of the vital fluid to the extremities. Hence coldness of the hands and feet, accompanied with headache, giddiness, and many other unpleasant complaints.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are one of the best preventives in the world against Cold Feet, because they not only cleanse the blood from those impurities which are the cause, but they impart an energy to the circulation which carries it with vigor to every part of the system.

Beware of SUGAR COATED COUNTERFEITS.—Remember that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of William Wright on the top label of each box. The genuine are for sale by C. G. O. HAZARD, No. 89, Thames-st., Sole Agent for Newport; and by Nathan Dennis, Portsmouth; Seabury & Almy, Tiverton Edge; Arnold Smith, Tiverton Four Corners; H. F. Brown, Little Compton; W. A. Brown, Adamsville. Wholesale at the New England Office, 193, Tremont-st., Boston.

JONE'S SOAP. Ladies in the country and watering places, see how the sun has burnt your faces! Look at your necks—how yellow, dark with tan. Why, 'twill repulse the love of any man! Those freckles, too, you know they'd quickly fly if Jone's Soap were used; come once—do try—it costs but fifty cents, and I am told it's worth, eye, doubly worth, its weight in gold! Persons who have had no faith in it, have been astonished at the wonderful effect of Jone's—that is, the genuine Jone's Soap—in beautifying the skin. For sale by Dr. R. J. Taylor.

CAUTION.—The public are particularly cautioned against being imposed upon by persons that are selling preparations of Sarsaparilla which they pretend have the same qualities as Brown's Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters. Since these Bitters have been offered to the public, there have been no less than four different imitations got up by as many different individuals, and sold for the genuine. The good qualities of Brown's Extract of Sarsaparilla and Tomato, or Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters, is already known and appreciated by physicians and the public—particularly by those who have used them for Impurities of the Blood, bad Humors, Scrofulous diseases, Bilious affections, Constiveness, loss of appetite, &c. There has been no medicine sold that has given such general satisfaction. There cannot be the least doubt that this compound is the best alterative now in use. We have abundance of proof of that fact. There have been thousands of cases of impurities of the blood cured by this medicine. Some of them have been truly wonderful, where the patients have been given over as incurable. The above compound is not merely a common extract of Sarsaparilla, but a very strong extract of the best Spanish Sarsaparilla, extracted by an entirely new apparatus, made expressly for the proprietor, and used by no other person in this country. This apparatus ensures the whole medical qualities of this most valuable root.

One of the most important effects of the recent progress of Science is the alliance of Chemistry with Physiology. By which a new and unexpected light has been thrown upon the vital processes of animals. For this we are indebted chiefly to the German and French chemists. We have now a clear understanding of the different action of elements, poisons, and remedial agents, and the long denied theory of the blood being the portion of the system upon which the latter should act, is now a demonstrated truth. The great object, therefore, is to ascertain what remedy will act most directly upon the constituents of the blood when in the act of combination. Experience, observation, and a cloud of witnesses, establish the fact that SANDS' SARSAPARILLA, is at the very head of this class. Cancer, scrofula, salt rheum, erysipelas, leprosy, ringworm, mercurial diseases, suppuration of the glands, swellings of the joints, and all the diseases of the muscles and tissues, together with general debility of the system, yield to this unfailing purifier of the blood—for the blood is the channel through which disease finds its way to the various organs of the body.

Prepared and sold by A. D. & D. SANDS, Druggists, 100 Fulton st. N. Y. Sold also by Dr. R. R. Hazard and R. J. Taylor Newport, by J. Russell, Fall River, by C. Dyer, For sale by R. J. TAYLOR.

Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

A REMEDY for all diseases of the Hair, and is restorative in all cases where baldness is not beyond the reach of art.
Naught with beauty can compare, With soft, glossy locks of hair; If not endowed with such by nature, Use Phalon's Hair Invigorator.
The subscriber having devoted a considerable portion of his time for twenty years to the study of the skin and the human hair, also the best means of treating and curing the same, and having, in the course of his experiments made various changes and improvements in the different articles approved as the best for such purposes, has at length, after laborious research and deep investigation, succeeded in bringing to perfection a composition, the virtues of which he challenges the world to excel.
The Chemical Hair Invigorator is composed of a number of vegetable ingredients of opposite qualities, and approved by the highest medical standard, the secret of blending and combining, which is known only to the subscriber, who has spared neither pains nor expense in bringing it before the public.
The Invigorator is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture of the hair never before attained, yet free from animal grease or essential oils. It cleanses the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which free the hair, thereby preventing baldness and gray hair, entirely frees the skin from scurf, dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so—will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft and healthy and glossy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and a free use of it will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the last period of life.
Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which when moistened with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

(Office No 21, Wall-st., N. Y.)
Advantages shown by the System of Life Insurance now in successful operation in this company.
1st. Those in good health, of the proper age, and of sound constitution, will be insured at the lowest rate of premiums.
2d. The premium, if over $50, can be paid one-fourth in cash, and three-fourths in a secured note at 12 months, bearing 6 per cent. interest, and subject to assessments if required, or it may be paid weekly, monthly, or quarterly.
3d. Annual division of profits in scrip certificates which bear 6 per cent. interest, and if required a loan of two-thirds on the scrip will be made in cash—or the profits can be added to increase the sum insured.
4th. No persons are liable beyond the amount of their premiums.
5th. Married women may insure the lives of their husbands, secure from any demands of their creditors, if the premium does not exceed $300 per annum.
6th. Creditors may insure their debtors; or debtors themselves, for the protection of creditors.
7th. An insurance can be made so that the sum insured will be paid on attaining a specified age, or sooner in the event of death.
8th. All claims on policies will be paid three months after notice and proof of death.
9th. No risk will be taken on any one life exceeding $5000, until the surplus profits amount to $50,000; then the amount of risk on a single life will be gradually extended as the funds of the Company augment.
10th. No Director or Officer can obtain a loan of the Company.
11th. When the net profits of the Company amount to $200,000, the excess will be applied towards the redemption of Scrip, giving priority to that first issued: but the amount of $200,000, in addition to the reinsurance fund, will be kept as a permanent fund, in which the members have a pro rata interest.
12th. The funds of the Company to be invested by the Finance Committee in bonds and mortgages on unencumbered real estate, the actual value of which is twice the amount loaned—or in stocks of the United States, or of the States of N. York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, and Maine, or loaned to members on their Scrip.
13th. No part of the profits is withheld, or diverted from the assured in any way.
14th. There is no stock or loan, either nominal or real, to pay interest for; the company having ample capital in the premiums received.
15th. It enables a man to provide for a wife and children, in such a way that although he may lose all, they are safe; and all persons, whether married or unmarried, to provide for old age, sickness, and want, as well as for death.
16th. It does not reckon the assured a year older than he is—but from six months less, to six months more, so as to equalize the same between all parties.
17th. It pays no directors, auditors, or solicitors.
18th. A portion of the directors and the officers are chosen yearly, and the members vote according to interest.
19th. The assured can surrender the policy at any time after a term of years, and receive its equitable value.
20th. Every precaution is taken to prevent a forfeiture of policy.
The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, is authorized by its charter to make all and every Insurance appertaining to or connected with Life risks, of whatsoever kind or nature, and will grant annuities and make endowments, as by the Act of Incorporation, passed the 30th January, 1845.
The Directors of this Company, deeply impressed with the very great, useful, and growing importance to the community at large of Life Insurance, would call the attention of the public to the following observations:—d principles, as intended to explain to them its peculiar advantages, and the particular features of this valuable institution. It is seen above how extensive the privileges are, reaching to every risk appertaining to or connected with life; guarding and supporting infancy to old age, in all grades of professions and trades; orphans, widows and their children, by a small annual investment, on the principle of Mutual Benefits, arising from Mutual Insurance, being a self-protective society. In this there is no Money Stock; the funds or capital arise from premiums paid in when persons make insurance, and these form the means to make payments on policies, grant loans, pay expenses, and yield profits. All persons insured become members, but are not liable beyond the amount of the premiums to be paid by them. The books of the company are open to them, to see that the sums paid, or securities received, are deposited or invested according to the charter, and the net profits, at fixed periods, are divided among them, as hereafter explained. The table of figures, and the rules, are made and calculated with accuracy, after the experience and practice of old English companies, and all persons can see by them how much they have to pay, and the gains they will be likely to receive. This plan partakes of the Savings Bank and Mutual Interest, affording the security of the one, and gain of the other, and is entirely benevolent in its operation; it also embraces a provision for Married Women to insure the lives of their husbands for any amount, the premium of which shall not exceed $300 per annum, and is secured to them against any demands in law, of creditors.
The greatest portion of society, who by daily exertions in industry earn support, as artisans and mechanics, deriving livelihood from personal labor and skill, seldom resort to Life Insurance, in any numbers, for a future provision for their families, though to none would it be so important as to them, who, by sickness and death, may in a day, leave those nearest and dearest to them in poverty. To men in mercantile pursuits and those in professional business of every rank and class, or those who have uncertain or small incomes, and who are most numerous in wealth in the aggregate, and have it in their power to provide against the vicissitudes they are constantly exposed to, Life Insurance is also of the utmost importance; they, and those in lower circumstances, are often deterred from entering into contracts of insurance, as the advantages appear remote—being contingent on death, or ability to pay the premiums.
To assist all such, this Mutual Benefit society arranges the payment of the premiums, and of returns, in part of the same, as to enable all persons to become members, and enjoy its advantages while living; thus protecting themselves in life, and providing for their families after their death; in this way a short life may obtain, and leave to heirs, the benefit of a long one.
This Company will grant insurances on lives, on the Mutual principle, to applicants upon their own lives, or the lives of others, for the whole duration of life, or for a limited period, at the rates specified in the tables, for sound and healthy persons.

Also, any person in sound health may insure $300 for life upon his own or his wife's life, or the wife upon the life of her husband, of the age of thirty years, (and in like proportion for other ages,) by paying 25 cents weekly, or on $1000 by paying 50 cents weekly, the policy always remaining with the Company, with the premiums paid endorsed thereon; and in case of death they will be entitled to the amount thus insured, deducting therefrom the balance remaining of weekly payments, with interest, for the current year. No risk will be taken on a single life for more than $5,000, until the profits of the Company amount to $50,000, after which, according to the profits, the amount will be gradually extended to a sum not exceeding $15,000.
The better to enable all persons to insure, the Company will annually issue Scrip certificates, of estimated profits, bearing interest at 6 per cent.—Whenever the accumulation of net profits of the Company shall exceed the sum of $300,000, the excess may be applied from year to year, or semi-annually thereafter, towards the redemption of each year's certificates of scrip, in whole or in part, as may be determined on by the board of directors, priority to be given to the scrip first issued. The insured may borrow from the Company on his scrip, two thirds of the amount of the same at any time, which will enable him to use a portion of his profits for the payment of his annual premium, even before the redemption of the scrip. All classes of persons will thus be admitted and enabled to meet the premiums, and have the gain of the Savings Bank, with the profit on a large business, by an actual small investment or outlay of money.
All claims for insurance will be paid three months after satisfactory evidence of the death of the persons deceased is exhibited and approved.
Should it any time be desirable for a person to sell his policy, where it is for life, the Company will purchase the same at an equitable rate.
Parties insured at the table rates of premiums, are not to pass south of the Southern line of Virginia and Kentucky, or east of the Mississippi River, between the first day of June and first day of November; but can visit any part of the United States or Northern British Provinces, between the first of November and first of June. By the payment of an extra premium, insurances can be effected by persons who desire to reside South during the interdicted time.
All persons whose lives are insured by this company, are permitted to travel on any of the regular mail routes, (within the limits prescribed in the policy) or on any of the Northern or Upper Lakes, by steamboat or other common mode of conveyance.
Extra hazardous risks will be taken on persons going out, or residing out of the limits of the policy, and embracing all parts of the world; also on all persons going to sea, and such other risks as may be specially agreed for, being more hazardous, to be expressed in their policies. The extra premiums to be computed upon equitable principles.
Insurances will be made on the lives of Military and Naval Officers, off or on duty, in time of peace, the premium to be settled according to circumstances of climate, locality, &c., as they may be more or less hazardous.
What can better illustrate the wise disposition of the Supreme Being, in the varying term of human life, than the certainty of the general laws that regulate its duration, and the reflections that arise from the contemplation of these laws operating constantly upon the human race? Life Insurance then rests upon the simple fact, that every individual of the human race has, at the period of his birth, a certain term of existence, which he will live through, or what is called the mean duration, or expectation of life at birth.
It is a question how such term of existence, or mean duration, is found. This is done simply by taking the number of years that have been lived through by a party from birth to death, and also of 1000 others born at the same time, and dying at all ages from 1 to 100 years old—the number of years lived by each person is added into one sum and being divided by the number of persons, the mean duration of the life of man is ascertained.
If it were found on trial, that on taking the result of the lives of 1,000 or 10,000 individuals, and deducing the mean duration; and then going through the same process with like numbers, and the mean duration of the latter differed widely from the former, it would be to no purpose to follow out experiments: but this is not the fact, and in nothing is the uniformity of the general laws of nature more powerfully exemplified, than in regulating the period of human existence. The result of experience is constant, that two bodies of individuals, each of 1000, living in the same country, and of similar occupations, have each a period of mean duration, which differs only a trifle from that of the other body. Apply this to insurance on life in the same body of persons; they pay a small sum or premium, annually, and the office, or Company, agrees to pay them annually a profit, and a certain sum at the death of each; as, by example, the average expectancy of life is found by experience, to be of a person in health of 25 years, 38 years more; and of 40 years 28 years longer; then by the tables of rates, the first has to pay $20.40-100 a year during his life, to secure, $1000 to be paid to his wife or children after his death; the second pays $32, to insure the same; then taking the gain of interest, and other items, that make up the profits on Mutual Benefits, it is almost certain the amount of $1000 insured will be much increased, when in the end it is to be paid to his heirs, all which is firmly established by the facts of experience. Life Insurance, therefore, on Mutual Benefits, is not a fictitious scheme to draw people into, for money-making purposes. Such an idea, if it exists, is most incorrect, and dissolved at once by the very fact, that this is a Mutual Benefit Company, and consequently any person taking out a policy, becomes a member by a small annual payment, and has a joint interest in its concerns, and a voice in its management.—Founded on scientific principles, exemplified by experience, its real services then to all classes of persons, who are dependent on certain incomes, or salaries, professions, mechanical skill, or daily labor cannot be denied; and it has proved essentially beneficial to the families of such, in event of death, and is therefore an institution ranking among the noblest works of benevolence in the world.
Such being the equitable and beneficial principles on which Mutual Life Insurance is established, it presents a most suitable and favorable means of providing for the aged and dependent lives of children; for what is the situation of a man, who, for the gratification of his affections, surrounds himself with a wife and children, and lives in the enjoyment of those valued blessings, and knowing that in an instant, the cessation of his life may throw them into a state of destitution? The neglect, then, of such a cheap and certain provision, is gross improvidence; for it is not mere a man's absolute duty, to provide while he lives the daily bread for his family, than it is against leaving them to suffer penurious misery in the event of his death. It is then a religious as well as moral duty, to be easily accomplished by weekly, monthly, or yearly earnings—and this Life Insurance of Mutual Benefits, is the protection against such dreadful evils.

The observations and explanations above made on the principles of Life Insurance generally, and particularly the great and very superior advantages exhibited to the public by insuring in this Mutual Benefit Company; the credit which policies will give to men in trade, the gain it may be to all classes in their business vocations, and the duty of all to provide for their families, should induce every person to give this subject a careful consideration, remembering the injunction of Scripture, that "if any provide not for his own, and especially for them of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel."

Hyer's Pills.

The American Improved Hygienic Vegetable Medicine.
SAFE, CHEAP AND EFFECTIVE.
This medicine makes no pretensions to miraculous powers, the raising of the dead, or to immense and astounding sales daily and hourly, after the most approved method of the times; but bases all its claims upon plain common sense principles, as a simple and to nature in restoring the human system to its proper tone and action, when by carelessness or unavoidable circumstances it has become deranged or debilitated, and asks simply a faithful trial as a test of its curative properties.—During the last twenty years it has worked its way into extensive use, truly upon its own merits, by commendation from individual to individual, not having been advertised for more than twelve years till within the past few months—save occasionally in a journal of which the present proprietor is Editor. The increasing demand, however, has measurably compelled greater attention to its business, and agencies are now being established throughout the country.
A faithful trial of a half dollar or dollar package is almost certain to secure use in every family where it is introduced, where medicine is needed. The undersigned has used it in his own family for more than fifteen years—has knowledge of its approved use in many others, (for periods varying from months to fifteen or sixteen years,) as their only medicine, and knows it to be valuable in most of the complaints incident to the human system. But a long or extravagant commendation is not designed or needed here. Ten thousand mere assertions in its favor will not make it valuable, or satisfy reasonable persons without a trial; for the proof, after all, must lie in the use of it. Try it, then. Read, try, and then judge.

Coggeshall & Bliss' Patent Cooking Range.

THE subscriber has just taken out letters patent for a new and beautiful cooking Range, to which they invite the attention of the public.
This Range may be set in the ordinary fire place, and by a simple, though effectual apparatus, the throat of the chimney may in an instant of time, be opened or closed, so that the heat in summer and the fumes from cooking at all times may escape through the chimney.
Wood or coal may be used, and the evil of smoking chimneys is completely remedied by its introduction.
This Range is so constructed that it takes up but a small space, and yet it contains all the qualities of those which take up double the amount; and it being constructed as it is, the Boilers are brought in close proximity with the fire, and it consequently boils much sooner, and with a smaller amount of fuel, than the old fashioned Ranges, or cook stoves.
It contains five boilers, four of which may be converted into two, by taking out a cross-piece, and thus will admit of two large boilers at the same time. It also contains an Oven 12 inches wide by 21 deep, which cannot be surpassed for baking.
The subscriber has one of these Ranges in operation at his store, where the public are invited to call and examine it, and if they will, they must at once discover its utility. He also keeps constantly on hand all kinds of Parlor, Office, and Cook Stoves, Tin Ware, &c., &c.
